GEORGIA SOFTBALL

2017 MEDIA GUIDE

The tone for winning was set early in Georgia history and has continued today. The Bulldogs have had 15-consecutive 40+ win seasons, including seven with 50 or more. Heading into the program's 21st year, Georgia has accumulated 892 victories along with a trio of SEC titles.

The goal for every team is to reach NCAA postseason, and Georgia has done that for 15-straight seasons, one of 11 teams to do so. With nine Super Regional appearances, Georgia has gone on to the Women's College World Series three times, becoming one of the last four teams standing in 2009 and 2010.

Numerous elite players have called Athens home, evident in the 25 NFCA All-Americans since 2002. Along with that, Georgia boasts 58 NFCA All-Region and 67 All-SEC honorees. Success isn't just on the field either, as Georgia has had 125 selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Lu Harris-Champer enters her 21st year coaching and 17th season at Georgia. One of the top coaches in the NCAA, Harris-Champer has tallied 986 career wins with 777 of those by the Bulldogs. Harris-Champer has reached 40 or more wins in 19 of her 20 seasons coaching.

The game of softball hasn't stopped for many after their Georgia career ends, as 17 Bulldogs have gone on to the professional side. Since 2007, nine Bulldogs have heard their names in the NPF Draft. Five former players were on NPF rosters in 2016 with three of them earning All-NPF honors.

There is no place like home for the Georgia Bulldogs, and JackTurner Stadium provides a great home field advantage. With close to 1,400 in the grandstands, Bulldog Nation has helped Georgia to 512 home wins. Georgia has also hosted nine NCAA Regionals and four Super Regionals.

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

In its 20 seasons of existence, the Georgia Bulldogs have made noise across the softball landscape. From three Women's College World Series appearances to three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the opening season in 1997, Georgia has accumulated 892 wins, including 310 in SEC action. A majority of those wins have come under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, 777 to be exact in her 16 years in the Classic City. The Bulldogs have had 15-straight seasons with 40 or more wins, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends, but carries on in postseason action. The team chemistry of the 2016 squad carried the Bulldogs to Oklahoma City. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the Championship Game. The past 15 years have also seen Georgia in a NCAA Regional while appearing in nine Super Regionals, collecting 61 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.

With the 2017 season here, there may be a new squad in Athens, but the goals remain the same, and Georgia won't be quieting down any time soon.

POSTSEASON STAPLE

Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from what the Bulldogs accomplish in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to a NCAA Regional in each of the past 15 seasons. Its stellar track record into the postseason slate puts Georgia as one of 11 teams in the nation to appear in a Regional for 15 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in nine Super Regionals since 2005. The Bulldogs have made it to Super Regionals the last three seasons, just one of 12 teams to do so.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both. The Bulldogs returned in 2016 after knocking off back-to-back National Champion Florida in dramatic walk-off fashion.

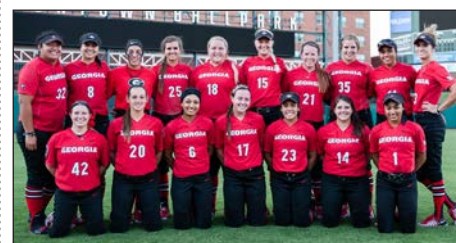

The consistency that the Bulldogs have showed reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

PRODAWGS

Former Bulldogs have made their presence known in the professional world, helping to grow the game across the nation.

Overall, 17 Bulldogs have gone on to play ball after their collegiate career. Since 2007, nine Georgia players were selected in the NPF Draft.

In the 2016 season, Georgia had five past athletes represented on an NPF roster. Four of those former Bulldogs--Alisa Goler, Kristyn Sandberg, Taylor Schlopy and Megan Wiggins--have had noteworthy careers in the NPF, each earning league-wide accolades. Since Goler, Schlopy and Wiggins entered the league in 2011, at least one of the four former Bulldogs has been named to the All-NPF Team. Alex Hugo became the fifth former Bulldog to join the NPF after a solid rookie season in 2016.

This past season, Goler, Wiggins and Schlopy each earned All-NPF honors while Wiggins was a part of the regular-season champion USSSA Pride.

ABOUT THE NPF

National Pro Fastpitch is headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee. The league, created to give elite female fastpitch players the opportunity to pursue a professional career in their chosen sport, has operated since 1997 under the names of Women's Pro Fastpitch (WPF) and Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). NPF is the official Development Partner of Major League Baseball in the category of women's fastpitch softball since 2002.

JACK TURNER STADIUM

Jack Turner Stadium

The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The main grandstand holds approximately 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host nine NCAA Regionals and four NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugout are connected via tunnel from the locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it, including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers as well as the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built featuring suites for radio, television, media and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

Jack Turner

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included:

Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Distinction," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

GEORGIA TRADITIONS

Uga

Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. Uga X, also known as Que, was collared during the 2015 football season.

The Arch

Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice and moderation.

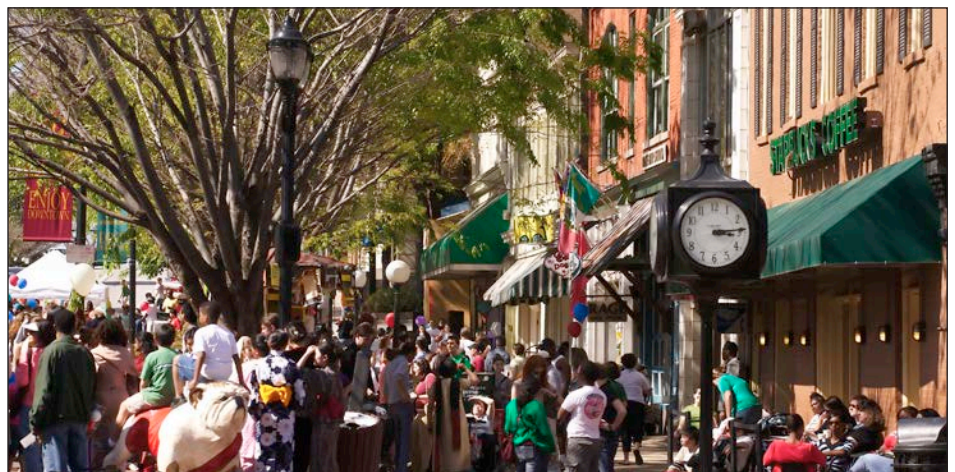

Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues today even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore.

ATHENS, GEORGIA

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athen's ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

2017 SEASON PREVIEW

BULLDOGS BRING BACK SOLID CORE FOR 2017

Georgia returns some solid mainstays to its lineup from last season, as three of its top four batting averages are back. Along with that, the Bulldogs' top two base stealers will be just as lethal on the basepaths. In the circle, Georgia has a pitcher who posted one of the league's best ERAs as well as another who had 100+ strikeouts.

HARRIS-CHAMPER RETURNS FOR YEAR 17 AT GEORGIA

Entering her 21st season as a head coach, Lu Harris-Champer returns for her 17th season at the helm of the Georgia Bulldogs. With 986 career wins, Harris-Champer has posted 777 of those at Georgia en route to 15-straight 40+ win seasons. She has guided the Bulldogs to NCAA postseason action in all but one season while making it to OKC three times.

TRIO OF BULLDOGS NAMED TO PRESEASON ALL-SEC TEAM

Senior Sydni Emanuel, junior Cortni Emanuel and sophomore Alyssa DiCarlo were each named to the Preseason All-SEC Team as voted on by the league's head coaches. The three selections tied for the most among league schools with LSU and Florida.

TOUGH SCHEDULE AWAITS GEORGIA

The slate features 13 NCAA Tournament teams, including three teams that joined Georgia at the 2016 Women's College World Series as well as a rematch of last year's Gainesville Super Regional. Seven opponents finished in the top 25 of the national polls with four in the top 10 while three others received votes.

GEORGIA WELCOMES 12 NEWCOMERS TO ROSTER

While bringing back 11 letterwinners from last season, Georgia will add 12 newcomers to its roster. The Bulldogs bring in 11 true freshmen, including an early enrollee from the fall's signing class, along with a junior transfer. It's one of the largest classes of newcomers for Lu Harris-Champer since 11 in 2010.

PLUS ONE...

After finishing the season ranked No. 6 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball Final Poll and No. 7 in the USA Today/NFCA Final Poll to close out 2016, Georgia enters the 2017 season ranked at No. 10 and No. 12 in those respective polls. Georgia has been ranked for 49-consecutive weeks in the NFCA list and 52-straight weeks in USA Softball's poll. Seven of Georgia's opponents were among those ranked in the preseason poll, as the SEC boasted nine schools in the top 25 of both.

HEAD COACH LU HARRIS-CHAMPER

21ST SEASON OVERALL (986-349-1) | 17TH SEASON AT GEORGIA (777-285)

Lu Harris-Champer has become the architect of Georgia softball, building the Bulldogs into a nationally-recognized, championship-caliber program. Entering her 17th year at the helm in the 2017 season, Harris-Champer has guided Georgia to 15-straight NCAA Championship appearances, two Southeastern Conference Championships, one SEC Tournament Championship, nine NCAA Super Regional showings and three trips to the Women's College World Series.

Harris-Champer is 777-273 in her time with the Bulldogs that includes a 272-150 record in the SEC. She has also established Georgia as one of the elite programs in the nation. Under her guidance, Georgia has had 25 NFCA All-Americans, 13 Easton All-Americans, 80 All-SEC recognitions, 58 NFCA All-Region selections, 21 SEC All-Tournament honorees, 27 SEC Players of the Week, 28 SEC Pitchers of the Week, 18 SEC Freshmen of the Week, one SEC Player of the Year, two SEC Pitchers of the Year, one SEC Freshman of the Year and has been named the SEC Coach of the Year twice.

Under her leadership, Georgia has been equally impressive off of the field. In her 16 seasons at the helm, Georgia has had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, 88 members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, 27 members of the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll, 13 players named to the SEC Community Service Team and five players inducted into the UGA Student-Athlete Leadership Academy.

The 2016 season was a magical one for Georgia softball and Harris-Champer, as the season accumulated in the program's third appearance at the Women's College World Series. After an early exit in the SEC Tournament, the Bulldogs entered postseason with a vengeance, taking the crown at the Athens Regional before bouncing back-to-back national champion Florida with a shutout win in game one and a Kaylee Puailoa walk-off home run in game two to secure their spot in Oklahoma City.

At season's end, Georgia had a 46-20 record, including 12-12 in SEC play. Eight Bulldogs hit over .300 for the year, guiding the team to a program-best .342 batting average. Tina Iosefa set an SEC and school record for most RBI in a season with 87 on her way to earning NFCA All-America honors. Four garnered NFCA All-Region awards while seven made it to an All-SEC Team, including freshman Alyssa DiCarlo to the first team as she had 63 RBI for the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

Harris-Champer and Georgia finished the 2015 season with an overall record of 44-17 that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC. Following the regular season, the Bulldogs earned the No. 14 seed in the NCAA Tournament where the team fought its way back from a 14-inning loss to Georgia finished the year with a 49-15 that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. In addition to the team successes, Harris-Champer coached several players to individual honors. Hugo, the 2014 NCAA Home Run Champion, was named a First Team NFCA All-American, to the All-SEC First Team, the All-SEC Tournament Team and the All-Southeast Region team. Chelsea Wilkinson was recognized as a Second Team All-American, the SEC Tournament MVP, a member of the All-Southeast Region Team, the All-SEC team and was named the SEC Pitcher of the Week twice. Additionally, Paige Wilson was an All-Southeast Region selection and named to the All-SEC and SEC All-Tournament team. In all, the Bulldogs had seven members named to the All-Southeast Region team, as Tina Iosefa, Geri Ann Glasco, Samantha LaZear and Anna Swafford each earned the honor.

In 2013, Harris-Champer led Georgia to its 12th NCAA Tournament. The 2013 Bulldogs finished the season with a 40-21 record that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC, seven wins over teams ranked in the top-25, sweeps of four SEC series and a two-game sweep of Georgia Tech. Harris-Champer coached four players to All-SEC honors, as Wilson and Kaylee Puailoa were each named First Team All-SEC and Glasco, Puailoa and Wilkinson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Glasco was named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, marking the first time in program history that a Georgia player received Freshman of the Year honors. Wilson and Wilkinson were also named to the SEC All-Tournament team. In addition to All-SEC honors, Puailoa, Glasco and Wilson were also named the NFCA All-Region Teams, with Glasco going on to earn Third Team NFCA All-America honors.

The 2012 season marked the 11th time that Harris-Champer has led a Bulldog softball squad to the NCAA postseason and the sixth time that Georgia advanced to a NCAA Super Regional. With a record of 45-17 that included a 17-11 mark in the SEC, the 2012 squad spent the majority of the season ranked among the top-15 team in the nation and earned 13 wins over team ranked in the top-25. In the NCAA Tournament, Georgia was awarded the 10th overall national seed. The Bulldogs swept the NCAA Athens Regional field, marking the sixth time that the team has claimed a regional title and advanced to the Knoxville Super Regional. Harris-Champer coached Kristyn Sandberg to First Team All-SEC

Harris-Champer's 2011 team posted a 51-14 overall record and advancing to the NCAA Super Regional round of play. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 17-9 and finished third in the Eastern Division and also made a run in the SEC Tournament advancing to the championship game. Georgia spent four weeks during the 2011 season ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association poll and one week atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, which marked the first No. 1 rankings in school history. Harris-Champer led three Bulldogs to All-American honors, as Alisa Goler and Megan Wiggins were selected to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America Second Team. Goler and Taylor Schlopy were named Lowe's Senior CLASS All-Americans, while Goler was a Top 25 Finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2010, Harris-Champer's Georgia squad posted a 50-13 overall record advancing to the WCWS where they went 2-2 and reached the final four. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-8 and finished second in the Eastern Division. In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/NFCA poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll. Under Harris-Champer's guidance, Goler and Schlopy earned second-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors, while Schlopy also garnered ESPN.com All-America recognition and was named a top 25 finalist for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2009, Harris-Champer's Bulldogs were tabbed the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year after going 47-12 and advancing to their first-ever Women's College World Series appearance, where they went 3-2 and were one of the final four teams standing. The Bulldogs finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game) and 10th in batting average (.319). In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-7 to finish second in the Eastern Division and third overall. Georgia tied for the league lead in triples with 17 and its national-leading fielding percentage was the third-best in SEC history. Georgia finished the season ranked fourth in both the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN.com/USA Softball final polls. Goler and Schlopy were named first-team All-Americans. Goler was also a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy was chosen to the USA Softball Japan Cup Team and helped the Americans win Gold.

In 2008, the Georgia softball program finished with an overall record of 46-24, an SEC mark of 14-14 (3rd Eastern Division) and advanced to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Softball Championship. With an 18-player roster consisting of fifty percent freshmen and 12 underclassmen, the prospect of what to expect from the onset of the season was uncertain. The Bulldogs finished the season ranked No. 17 by USA Today/NFCA and No. 18

by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Harris-Champer recorded and surpassed 600 collegiate career coaching victories in 2008 as well as achieving and surpassing 400 wins at Georgia in her eight seasons with the team.

The Bulldogs concluded their 2007 campaign with an appearance in the championship game of the NCAA Lincoln Regional. The Bulldogs posted a 46-28 overall record and a 13-15 mark in conference action. Kellie Middleton became a two-time All-American after earning Second Team honors from Easton, which marked the sixth-consecutive year in which a Bulldog earned All-America honors.

Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs captured their third Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title en route to posting its fifth consecutive season of 54 or more wins in 2006. Overall, UGA tallied a 54-15 overall record and earned a berth in the NCAA Regionals. Harris-Champer secured her 500th career win on April 2 with a victory over Ole Miss. At the conclusion of the season, Georgia also set a school record after three student-athletes (Kellie Middleton, Jessica Doucette and Megan McAllister) earned All-America distinctions in 2006.

The 2005 season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Bulldogs as they earned their second conference championship in three years while appearing in the championship game of an NCAA Super Regional. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, Georgia posted a 26-4 record in Southeastern Conference play, tying the second-best mark in conference history. Michelle Green and Kim Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor as well.

The Bulldogs concluded the 2004 season with an appearance in the championship game of a NCAA Regional. The Bulldogs finished the season in the top-20 in several national statistics, including a third-place finish in team batting average (.329), six-place ranking in fielding percentage (.974) and a seventh-place finish in runs per game (5.72).

In 2003, the Bulldogs clinched the program's first SEC crown and earned its second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Regionals, capturing two wins in the tournament. At the conclusion of the 2003 season the Bulldogs led the SEC in 18 categories and were second in five more. Georgia tied two NCAA records, four SEC records and established 35 new Georgia records.

Harris-Champer took Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Softball Tournament in 2002, compiling a 59-17 record. The 59 wins ranked as the second-best in the nation in 2002. Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs started their season with a 24-game winning streak. By the end of the regular season, Georgia had finished second in both the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the Conference Tournament. Nicole Barber and Kim Wendland became Georgia's first two All-Americans in softball and were also named First Team All-SEC. Barber became the NCAA record holder for consecutive steals with 73.

In 2001, Harris-Champer helped Georgia to a 33-win season while setting several team records along the way. She also picked up sweeps against Georgia Tech and Florida, and taking two of three from Tennessee.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Harris-Champer spent three seasons as the head coach at Southern Miss where she led the Lady Eagles to two Women's College World Series appearances. For her efforts in the 1999 season, Harris-Champer was named the 1999 South Region Coach of the Year. In addition to her honors, Southern Miss pitcher Courtney Blades won the 2000 Honda Broderick Award as the nation's top player.

In 1997, Harris-Champer served as head coach of the Orlando Wahoos of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League. She led Orlando to a 60-13 record and earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding her team to regular-season and tournament titles.

Harris-Champer was head coach at Nicholls State in 1996 and 1997, leading the school to impressive records of 46-19 and 48-23, respectively. She also helped the team to a pair of NCAA Regional berths, a Southland Conference regular-season and tournament championship, as well as the finals of the NCAA Regional. Harris was tabbed 1996 Southland Conference and South Region Coach of the Year and finished third in National Coach of the Year balloting.

Prior to her stint at Nicholls, Harris-Champer spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Western Illinois. During that span, the Westervinds were 156-98, won the 1992 Gateway Conference tournament, the 1993 Mid-Continent Conference regular season and tournament crowns and the 1996 Mid-Continent Conference West Division title.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Harris-Champer played three seasons at Western Illinois after transferring from Mesa (Calif.) Community College. She is married to Jerry Champer, the associate head coach for the seven-time national championship Georgia swimming and diving team.

Lu and Jerry have three children: Twins Jenna & Emma, born Aug. 2, 2004, and Mya, born May 23, 2006.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH TONY BALDWIN

THIRD SEASON | BUTLER '95

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014 before being promoted to associate head coach shortly after the 2016 season. Baldwin will be in his third season entering the 2017 campaign.

Georgia's offense has found successful production since Baldwin's arrival. In 2016, Georgia had its second-best batting average in school history, hitting .342 with eight Bulldogs holding a .300 or better average on its way to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. After a tough offseason of individual work with Baldwin, many individuals put up stellar numbers. Tina Iosefa led the nation while breaking the SEC record with 87 RBI during the season, earning her NFCA All-America honors. Alyssa DiCarlo was named to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman after hitting nine of her 11 home runs against SEC opponents while notching 63 RBI on the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

In his first season back, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top 100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

Before returning to Athens, Baldwin was an assistant coach at North Carolina. Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia as volunteer coach, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

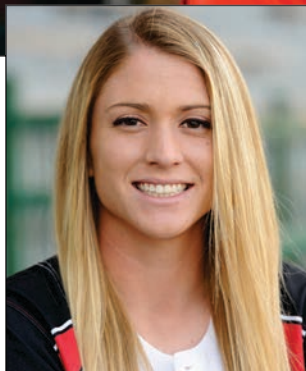

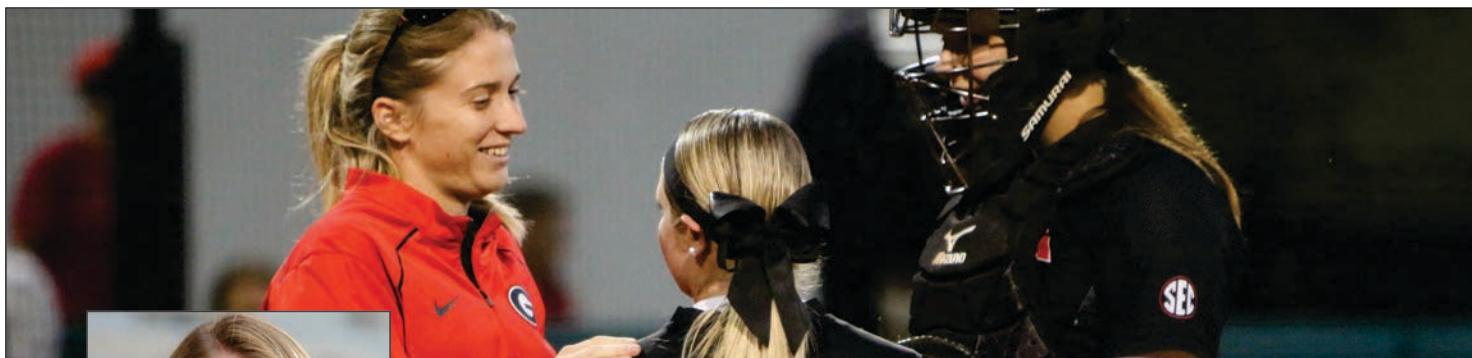

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth College, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001 and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1994-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998 and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Ind., Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-2012.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children, Ella, Abby, Brady and Katie.

ASSISTANT COACH RACHELE FICO

SECOND SEASON | LSU '13

With a career that boasts accolades of a two-time National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American and hailing as the No. 1 draft pick in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft, former LSU standout Rachele Fico joined the Georgia softball staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2016 season.

In her first year with the Bulldogs, Fico helped the pitching staff to a 2.27 ERA, as the team collected 46 wins. Leading the way was NFCA All-Region selection Chelsea Wilkinson, who led the SEC with 28 victories, including a shutout win in game one of the Gainesville Super Regional to guide the Bulldogs to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. Along with Wilkinson's 219 strikeouts, Brittany Gray notched 100+ strikeouts on the season while Kylie Bass sported a 1.25 ERA, one of the best in the nation.

Fico served as an assistant coach at top-25 program South Alabama during the 2015 season where the Jaguars took the Sun Belt Conference crown and advanced to its fourth-straight NCAA Regional. Under Fico's guidance, the USA pitching staff held a 2.51 ERA that was top 30 in the NCAA while the trio of pitchers was each in the top 150 individually.

Outside of ERA, Fico helped freshman Devin Brown rank fourth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings (10.9) and senior Farish Beard finish seventh in the NCAA in hits allowed per seven innings (4.04). Beard and freshman Kalen McGill earned All-SBC honors.

The Oxford, Conn., native was the No. 1 draft pick out of college, playing the last four seasons with the NPF's Akron Racers. An All-NPF Team selection in 2014, Fico has pitched over 270 innings on her way to 21 wins during her professional career.

While at LSU, Fico was a two-time NFCA First-Team All-American, three-time NFCA All-South Region First-Team member and three-time all-Southeastern Conference honoree.

During her freshman season with the Tigers in 2010, Fico was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year in addition to making the All-SEC Freshman and Defensive Team lists. A year later, she led her club to the 2011 NCAA College Station Regional where the Tigers ultimately fell to Syracuse, but not before the right-handed hurler earned a spot on the All-Regional team behind an 18-strikeout performance against the Orange, a feat which tied for second-most in LSU history.

Fico also brings Women's College World Series experience after leading the Tigers to Oklahoma City as a junior in 2012 when she earned both wins over No. 9 national seed Missouri at the NCAA Columbia Super Regional. Prior to that, she was unanimously named the NCAA College Station Regional MVP after compiling back-to-back shutouts versus Texas State and No. 8 national seed Texas A&M.

Fico completed her collegiate career among LSU's top five in appearances (149), starts (104), complete games (82), innings pitched (774.0), wins (78), saves (8), opposing batting average (0.195), shutouts (32), strikeouts (797) and strikeouts per seven innings (7.21).

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

2016 SEASON RECAP

GEORGIA PUNCHES TICKET TO OKLAHOMA CITY

Georgia made its third appearance in program history at the Women's College World Series. En route to Oklahoma City, the Bulldogs played in its 15th consecutive NCAA Regional while making its ninth trip to the Super Regional round.

DICARLO MAKES STRONG DEBUT

Alyssa DiCarlo burst onto the scene in 2016, finishing fourth on the team with a .371 batting average with 75 hits. Of her hits, 28 of them went for extra bases, as she ranked sixth in the SEC with 16 doubles. The Arizona native also notched 63 RBI, as she ranked 15th in the nation in the stat and had the most RBI among the nation's freshmen.

WILKINSON MAKES HER MARK AS A BULLDOG

Chelsea Wilkinson closed out a stellar collegiate career at Georgia. Wilkinson ranked first in the SEC with 28 wins, finishing with 97 in her career, which sits at No. 2 in Bulldog history. The 2014 SEC Tournament MVP also finished second in the all-time records after hurling 897 career strikeouts.

IOSEFA HITS HER WAY INTO GEORGIA AND SEC RECORD BOOKS

Tina Iosefa earned her first NFCA All-America honors after leading the nation with 87 RBI and 23 home runs. Her single-season RBI number not only set a program record, but broke the SEC record held by former Bulldog All-American Alisa Goler.

BULLDOGS WELL REPRESENTED ON LEAGUE HONOR ROLL

Seven Bulldogs earned postseason honors as voted on by the SEC coaches. Alyssa DiCarlo and Sydni Emanuel were First-Team All-SEC honorees while Cortni Emanuel, Alex Hugo, Tina Iosefa and Chelsea Wilkinson were named to the second team. Along with DiCarlo, Lacey Sumerlin found a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

PLUS ONE...

The road to OKC took the Bulldogs to the Gainesville Super Regional to face back-to-back National Champion and No. 1 seed Florida. The teams didn't meet in the regular season or the SEC Tournament. With a shutout win in game one and Kaylee Puailoa's two-strike, two-out, pinch-hit walk-off home run in game two, Georgia became the second 16 seed to eliminate a No. 1 team in Super Regionals, following Hawaii's walk-off home run win over Alabama in 2010.
